However, if we establish that, unknown to you, an Insured Person was careless in providing information then we shall treat this insurance, in so far as it relates to the Insured Person concerned, as if it had never existed and refuse to pay claims and return a proportion of the paid premium that relates to such Insured Person. We will only do this if we provided you with insurance cover which we would not otherwise have offered;

If we establish that you or an Insured Person was careless in providing us with the information we have relied upon in accepting this insurance and setting its terms and premium we may:

- amend the terms of your insurance. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place if a claim has been adversely impacted by you or an Insured Person's carelessness; or
- charge you more for your insurance or reduce the amount we pay on a claim in the proportion the premium you have paid bears to the premium we would have charged you; or
