Important:

There will be a briefing regarding the rules on the day although all entrants/coaches are expected to know and understand the rules in advance of the competition.

Modern Taolu Rules and Regulations:

1. 2019 IWUF Modern Taolu rules \(excerpt\)
2. The competition will be scored in accordance with the latest 2019 edition rules (excerpt) published by the IWUF in the link above
3. All modern categories will be judged using the 5/5 (group A / group B) scoring method only. No nandu / group C judging will be employed.
4. All competitors in adult categories are allowed to perform either compulsory or optional taolu in their respective events.
5. Adult, Youth Group A and Youth Group B categories must conform with the IWUF time requirements for respective events.
6. There are no specific categories to segregate beginners from advanced practitioners.
7. Each entrant may only enter one empty hand, one short weapon and one long weapon at most.
8. The performance level of Adult (18 and over) entrants who hold a British passport will be assessed accordingly and performances deemed to be of a sufficiently high standard at the competition will be (subject to meeting the criteria outlined below) offered a place on the Great Britain Wushu Team for the upcoming World Wushu Championships to be held in November in Dallas, USA. Competitors that will be considered for selection must meet the following criteria:
  - All Adult athletes must perform optional routines. Please contact mike.donoghue@bccma.com in advance of entry if you are unsure of anything.
  - All adult athletes are required to compete in two individual routines to be considered for selection.
  - All adult athletes wishing to be considered for selection, must submit a nandu form containing their desired breakdown of difficulty movements, connecting movements and totals. The form will be used to determine group C score eligibility which will not form part of the athlete's overall score. One form must be used
