Please familiarise yourselves with the competition rules for this National Junior Qingda Championships for Saturday 2nd November 2019.

We have taken out strikes to the head completely for age groups under the age of 14, this means that junior competitors will not be allowed to attack the face or to the side of the head at all.

Please remember that this is a light contact event for juniors and coaches should ensure the students who will be competing are aware of this for their age groups.

Coaches should also make parents aware there will always be a possible risk of injury when contestant engage in contest.

Scope of participation

This event will be defined by the light contact junior rule committee in conjunction with the organisers. It is aimed at juniors from the ages of 5 years to 17 years.

Method of competition

Individuals shall compete in tournaments by category, which will be defined as;

- (a) Under 14 years of age; minimum shall be 5 years.
- (b) 14 and 15 years
- (c) 16 and 17 years

Each group may, subject to numbers, be further sub-divided by weight

If there are insufficient numbers in any level or group, they will be merged with another Level or group, if such is judged to be safe.

In the under 15's if a contestant is deemed by the Chief Head judge to be too big for their group they can be reassigned to a higher group. This does not apply in the other direction.

Duration of contest

- 1 minute for 5 to 13 years with a 30 second rest between each round
- 1 ½ minutes for 14 to 15 years with a 60 second rest between each round
- 2 minutes for 16 to 17 years with a 60 second rest between each round

The British Council for Chinese Martial Arts

The best of three rounds may be used, the third round only being played if the same score is one round each at the end of the second round.

Weight Categories age 5 to 17

1. Under 48 kg
2. under 52 kg 48 kg to 52 kg
3. under 56 kg 52 kg to 56 kg
4. under 60 kg 56 kg to 60 kg
5. under 65 kg 60 kg to 65 kg
6. under 70 kg 65 kg to 70 kg
7. under 75 kg 70 kg to 75 kg
8. under 80 kg 75 kg to 80 kg 9. under 85 kg 80 kg to 85 kg
10. under 90 kg 85 kg to 90 kg
11. under 95kg 90 kg to 95 kg

Under 48 kg a 3kg a variance between lightest and heaviest competitor

Over 48 kg a 5 kg variance between lightest and heaviest competitor

Over 15 years to 17 years a maximum of 8kg variance between lightest and heaviest competitor

In case there are less than 6 athletes per age group/category, The BCCMA takes the right to join the junior age categories on the same weight category,

When putting your weight on the form, make sure you put the weight you are, not the weight you would like to be. When weighed in, if you are not in the category that you stated you will be disqualified. You may enter another category and a re-registration fee will be charged.

The pairing of contestants

Lots will be drawn to pair off contestants before the event in accordance with any adjustments made to the categories by the organisers.

If seeding of participants is used only none seeded participants will have lots drawn. The drawing of lots will be carried out in the presence of a BCCMA recognised official appointed in conjunction with the competition organisers.

System of Contest

There shall be three principal types of competition: Direct Elimination, Double Elimination and League (sometimes referred to as Pool, also known as Round Robin).

Direct Elimination Under this method the two contestants compete, and the winner of the round goes forward to meet the next competitor in the next round until the final round is reached and the winner is declared.

Double Elimination. Similar to Direct Elimination, however the loser of each first round will fight again.

League This involves each member of a pool of competitors taking it in turn to compete with every other competitor in their pool. The winners of the pool will go further rounds if such are planned, which may be further leagues or direct eliminations, or they may be declared the winner of their category (subject to number of entries), the decision on which protocol will be used shall be agreed by the Chief Head Judge and announce by the organisers.

The British Council for Chinese Martial Arts

Equipment

The contestants shall be responsible for providing all their own necessary safety equipment to the Rules Committees acceptable standard. The equipment shall fall into two categories, compulsory and optional:

Compulsory Equipment:

- Head guard,
- Elasticated shin and instep protectors,
- Boxing gloves,

- gum shield (optional for under 14's)
- groin guard
- females the use of chest protector to be worn as appropriate.

Dress Code:

Failure to comply with this rule will mean disqualification of the contestant from the competition.

The contestants must provide their own clothing, which must be clean and well presented. It shall consist of either a training jacket or plain tee shirt and long trousers (no shorts or boxing trunks will be allowed). Tops must not be covered in prints or be multi coloured. Badges of the contestant's association and that of the BCCMA are permitted and a reasonable discrete space for sponsors will be permitted. The Chief Head Judge will have the final say as to whether any clothing is or is not acceptable in competitions.

Spectacles, hard contact lenses must not be worn.

All jewellery, including such items as; rings, earrings, studs, pendants, and necklaces must be removed. Rings, which cannot be removed must be taped over. If the ring is still considered dangerous the contestant will not be allowed to take part. The Chief Head Judge will have the final say as to whether any such item is or is not acceptable in this competition.

Any cuts or lacerations must be covered with a medically approved plaster, which will protect both the contestant and others from contact with blood.

Injured athletes will not be permitted to take part, however if an elasticated support is required one may be used subject to the approval of the Chief Head Judge.

The competitors will be bare footed during the matches. However, it is strongly recommended that all competitors wear appropriate foot covering when not engaged in match play.

Personal hygiene. Competitors must commence the event in a clean non body odour manner with all hand and foot nails cut short and filed smooth.
