Who can enter this competition?

Age: 18 years old and over

You have read, understood, and agree with the event and competition (<https://bccma.com/rules/>) rules.

You and your coach (if applicable) have understood and agree with the online entry registration form.

Competition uniform:

All contestants must have bare feet and wear a short-sleeved top and shorts or bottoms which do not obstruct the view of the feet. Sashes will be supplied to wear when competing. Long hair should be tied back, and nails cut short.

The Head Judge will have the final say as to whether any adornment is or is not acceptable in the competition.

Spectacles and hard contact lenses must not be worn. Jewellery must be removed. If a ring cannot be removed, it must be taped over. If the ring is still considered dangerous the contestant will not be allowed to participate.

Any open or recently closed wounds must be sufficiently covered to protect both the contestant and others from contact with blood.

Injured athletes will not be permitted to take part, however if an elasticated support is required one may be used subject to the approval of the Head Judge.

The competitors will be bare footed during the matches. However, it is strongly recommended that all competitors wear appropriate foot covering when not engaged in match play.

Basic hygiene is expected.

Filming: (and public access)

We will be filming all fights/forms, Ultimately you will be able to access these via the Official BCCMA YouTube channel.

Currently you can film from the bleacher (tiered/raked) seating, NOT standing by the mats or crowd control barriers blocking the view of others.

Be mindful if you are promoting your club on social media, to be respectful of other athletes and their clubs. (In case of Under 18 children extra safeguarding standards should be applied)

Access behind any crowd control barriers is only for Officials and Helpers (with official wristbands) and obviously athletes (and corner person if sparring) about to compete.

- No more that 3 bouts in advance of when you are due to compete.

APPEALS PROCEDURE -SCOPE OF APPEALS

The participant has the right to appeal to the Jury of Appeal, only when they disagree with the Head Judge's ruling 'on the athlete's performance' in regard of being injured by their own fault or non-conformity with specifications such as dress code or etiquette.

A competitor representative who disagrees with the Head Judge's decision may submit a written complaint to the Jury of Appeal within 15 minutes of the end of the competitor's event. If the 15 minutes has lapsed the appeal will not be accepted.

Procedures and Requirements of Appeal

- A competitor representative shall send a written appeal to the Jury of Appeal within 15 minutes following the conclusion of the event concerned or in 15 minutes following the conclusion of the competition if it is the last event. The appeal shall be handed in together with an appeal fee of £50, which shall be returned if the appeal proves to be justified and some change is made in the original judgement, and which shall not be returned if the original judgement is affirmed. One appeal shall be confined to one issue.
- All participating teams shall abide by the final decision of the Jury of Appeal. In case of disobedience and unreasonable quibbling, the Jury of Appeal may propose to the Competition Committee for earnest treatment, even for a cancellation of competition results.
